(a) whether Government are aware that the United States-based International Centre for Missing and Exploited Children, Microsoft and Interpol have trained Indian law-enforcers at the CBI Academy in Ghaziabad and Thiruvananthapuram, on how to track down offenders who abuse the net through blogs, photo films and fire sharing; and

(b) if so, whether Government are thinking of exposing our law-enforcers to more advanced courses, as our CBI personnel have been given only basic training so far?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MANIKRAO GAVIT): (a) The CBI Academy in Ghaziabad hosted a four-day training programme on 'Computer facilitated Crimes against Children' for officers of law enforcement agencies and the CBI from 15.1.2007 to 18.1.2007 which was organized by the Interpol General Secretariat (IPSG) and the International Centre for Missing and Exploited Children (ICMEC) and supported by Microsoft Corporation.

(b) The CBI, apart from organizing basic training for its officers has also organised Advanced Training courses on Cyber Crime Investigation and other subjects for officers of the CBI and other Law Enforcement agencies during the past few years.

Naxalites plan to attack upcoming projects

4498. SHRIMATI PREMA CARIAPPA:
SHRIMATI SHOBHANA BHARTIA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Annual Report of Maoists, seized by security forces recently, had listed several upcoming projects in Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand and Andhra Pradesh, for attacks;

(b) whether Naxalites have plans to disrupt various proposed infrastructure and mining projects and steel plants by cashing in on the discontent due to displacement of tribals in mineral rich areas;

(c) whether the Ministry has sought cooperation of the Directorate of Revenue Intelligence and the concerned banks operating in the Naxal affected States, togather data on the funding pattern of these outfits; and

(d) the steps Government propose to take?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (d) While Government of India is not aware of any Annual Report of the CPI (Maoist) seized by security forces, CPI (Maoist) has prominently taken up displacement issue with the twin objective of mobilizing the displaced people to expands its mass base and to win over interllectual support. The mobilization efforts are being spearheaded by the People's Democratic Front of India (PDFI) with the specific objective of uniting the disparate forces against development policies of the Government. The PDFI maintains the people were being displaced from tribal areas, slum areas in urban centres and from agricultural land in rural areas all over the country. It has called for combating and new industrial/mining ventures till those displaced in earlier projects were properly rehabilitated by the State Governments.

The Government is addressing naxalism holistically on security, development and public perception management fronts. The States have been advised to take all precautionary measures in respect of any naxal activity under PDFI or similar front organizations.

Crimes against children

4499. DR. GYAN PRAKASH PILANIA:
SHRIMATI MAYA SINGH:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the total complaints of missing children received in Police Stations, during the last three years, how many were merely entered in 'Rojnamcha' and how many FIRs were registered;

(b) the total FIRs registered for crimes against children during last three years, their disposal, decrease/increase/percentage crime-wise, year-wise, State-wise;

(c) the first three States having worst scenario;

(d) how many out of the total FIRs for kidnapping/abduction pertained to ransom and what was their outcome;